Member & Facility Listings require approval

The first draft of the Member and Facility Listings for the 2011 PGA of BC Directory is now available for members to view.

Members are requested to click on the links below to ensure that their contact and affiliation information is accurate and up to date. If you are having difficulty locating your listing, note that regular member listings run to Page 56 of the Member Listings document, Unattached Members start on Page 56, Life Members start on Page 57, Retired Members start on Page 59, Affiliate Members start on Page 61 and Non-Resident Members start on Page 63.

Please do not worry about what category you are listed under; we will be adjusting member category titles to conform to the PACE guidelines adopted earlier this year by the CPGA.

The deadline for any changes to the listings must be submitted in writing to the PGA of BC no later than Friday August 13th, 2010. Please email changes to:

Donald Miyazaki
Communications & Member Services Coordinator
donald@pgabc.org.

PGA of BC players represents province well at 2010 Canada Cup

Congratulations to PGA of BC members who participated in the 2010 Canada Cup presented by Investors Group & Beringer, held at the Richelieu Valley Golf Club in Ste-Julie, Quebec, July 29 - August 1st.

Six of the seven BC representatives made the two-day cut of 151 to play for the $100,000 purse on the weekend.

Leading the strong contingent of BC players was Bryn Parry of Seymour Creek Golf Centre. Parry's solid play of -6 (70-70-70-72=282) placed him in a tie for second place and earned him a cheque for $9,150.

Close behind was Matt Palsenborg of Northview Golf & Country Club whose 5th place finish at -3 (75-67-73-70=285) was good enough for $4,000. Kyle German of Point Roberts Golf & Country Club continued his successful 2010 campaign by finishing in 8th place at +1 (74-72-71-72=289) and won $2,600. Doug Morgan of The Redwoods Golf Course placed in a tie for 12th place at +4 (71-74-75-72=292 $1,750).

Lenny Cyr of Seymour Golf & Country Club closed out the tournament strong with a final round 71, finishing in a tie for 28th at +8, (76-74-75-71=296 $781.25) while Dave Zibrik of Westwood Plateau Golf Academy rounds up the strong BC contenders finishing in a tie for 41st (71-76-75-76=298 $560) at +10.

Dave Levesque of Braeben Academy in Ontario claimed victory of the event with his steady play of 69-69-67-72=277, finished the event at -11, 5 shots clear of Yvan Beauchemin of Quebec and Parry to claim the $18,000 first place prize.

The PGA of BC would like to congratulate our members on a strong showing at the event and for representing the Association well. Special recognition also goes out to the AGP of Quebec for an outstanding job in hosting the great event that was well received by all players, sponsors and spectators.

Health & Safety - Tragedy at Deerhurst Resort

The PGA of BC would like to remind all members and workers in the industry of important health and safety standards when working at a golf course.

As some of you may already be aware, the Deerhurst Resort in Huntsville, Ontario, has recently been dealing with the tragic loss of one of their golf employees, Gerry Lepage, who succumbed to head injuries suffered from a fall off the back of a golf cart.

We recommend that all members take a moment and please read the entire article (link below) regarding the incident and be reminded of the importance of workplace safety.
