Kelowna Golf & Country Club claim victory at Pro-Assistant Championship

The two-man team of Rob Anderson and Ryan Matushyk blistered Sun Rivers Golf Resort to win the 2010 Cleveland Golf/Srixon Canada/ G&G Golf PGA of BC Pro-Assistant Championship on July 19th & 20th.

The team from Kelowna G&CC opened the tournament with a phenomenal round of 59 in the best ball format and closed out the event shooting 62 in the scramble format to finish the tournament at 23 under par.

That would normally be more than enough to win, but the Kelowna duo didn't count on some tremendous scramble play by Scott Dickson and Lindsay Bernakevitch of Shaughnessy G&CC. That pair shot a fantastic 58 on Day 2, the low round of the tournament, and came within a single stroke of tying for the lead.

For their win, Anderson and Matushyk earned themselves $2,300 out of the total $13,000 purse. Dickson and Bernakevitch shared $1,600.

Mark Burke and Mo Kidane of The Golf Institute at Fraserview rounded out the top three, finishing four shots back at 19-under and claiming $1,400.

Honourable mention also goes out to Matt Hardman and Doug Morgan of The Redwoods Golf Course in Langley. Their eagle on the 580-yard par 5 first hole in the scramble format claimed the only skin of the tournament, worth a whopping $1,340.

In all, 34 teams had a terrific two days in Kamloops. The PGA of BC would like to thank sponsors G&G Golf and Cleveland Golf/Srixon Canada, as well as Sun Rivers Golf Resort and host Head Professional Ian Henson for their generous support of the event.
