This is the first junior event of its kind anywhere in Canada, as juniors will be able to compete in their own "skins" game at the event, playing the course the Pro's will be playing just 2 weeks later. The event will be a stroke play (stableford) event where juniors will be able to score "skins" throughout the round.

- 2 or more over par - 0 skins
- 1 over par - 1 skin
- Fixed par - 2 skins
- 1 under par - 3 skins
- 2 under par - 4 skins

Each participant will receive two tickets to the TELUS World Skins Game taking place June 21 and 22 at Bear Mountain Resort. As well, the division winners of each age group will be awarded the chance to be a standard bearer for the Pro's at the TELUS World Skins Game. The CJGA will also conduct an onsite draw for all of the participants in the event to fill additional standard bearer positions.

This is a great opportunity. There is no restriction on entry. The TELUS World Junior Skins is open to all juniors, boy and girls between the ages of 11 to 19. Membership in the Canadian Junior Golf Association will be waived for this one-time event and only the event entry fee will be required to allow all juniors a chance walk with the pro's.
